

2.8 million people can't be wrong. Since signing my name to the Do Not Call list, I received my first marketing call yesterday morning at 9:00 AM, as I was sound asleep. I have every intention of filing a complaint against them and will continue to do so for as long as my home is invaded by these perpetrators.